

Dr. Manal M. Younus

ISoP Board Member

Dr. Manal M. Younus holds a PhD in clinical pharmacy and prior to starting her position as the head of the Iraqi Pharmacovigilance Center; she had worked for many years with the Medicines Regulatory Authority in the Iraqi MOH, also worked as a hospital pharmacist for over 10 years before joining the regulatory authority. Through her leadership and competency, she laid the establishment and the expansion of the Iraqi pharmacovigilance system.

On the international level, she is an ISOP advisory board member and ISOP Middle East chapter scientific committee member, she represents Iraq in the WHO international drug monitoring program and also FIP member. On the national level, currently she is serving as a member in many committees including Biologicals and Biosimilars registration, clinical pharmacy advisory board, pharmaceutical ethical promotion, the central committee for containing antimicrobial resistance and many others. She is heavily involved in pharmacovigilance training at both national and regional levels. She has authored more than 20 articles in different drug safety related subjects.